

Madalyn McCombs
VP of Community Service

Hey ya'll!! My name is Madalyn McCombs, your District One State Officer and this year is my second term as Florida's State Vice-President of Community Service. I've been an active member in FCCLA for five years now and I couldn't be more proud than to be a member of such a prestigious organization. Like FCCLA, over the years I've done a lot of changing, but now as I (finally!) enter my senior year of high school, I couldn't have more of an FCCLA-centered heart. Along with being a State Officer I am also a representative for my graduating class of less than fifty people. I might come from a small town, but I have big ambitions. I am involved in my school's musical theatre, Student Government, Youth for Christ and am active in my church choir and youth group. When I'm not roaming around the state with my fellow officers, I work to make money and shop to spend it! Going into my senior year is a little bitter-sweet for me. It means that I only have one more year before truly experiencing the world around me as an adult and finding out what this life holds for me, but it also means preparing myself to say good-bye to not only the people I grew up with and the amazing influences who had a hand in helping grow, but also to FCCLA as your State Officer. So this year I challenge you to join and help me to dig deep into the 2010-2011 State Project to make it the best, just like my final year. Remember: "To get something you've never had before, you have to do something you've never done," so let's open this book to a fairy-tale perfect year. I can't wait to enjoy it with you =)
