

FEFACS Logo Design Contest

This contest is sponsored by FEFACS, the Florida Educators of Family and Consumer Sciences. Any current FCCLA member may enter. We are looking for a new original piece of artwork that represents Family and Consumer Sciences to be added to the upper left corner of our current FEFACS logo. The winner will receive a $50 scholarship that can be used for educational purposes, including FCCLA related expenses. The winner and winning logo will be announced at FCCLA SLC in Orlando!

All designs must be original and will become the property of FEFACS.

ELIGIBILITY

1. The FEFACS logo design must have been created during the contest timeframe and be original artwork.
2. The FEFACS logo design entry must be created by the participant only.
3. A participant may enter only ONE design for this contest.

SPECIFICATIONS

The logo design may have up to 3 colors, but not all black. The design must be incorporated into the current logo and not increase the overall size of the logo by more than 5%. The current logo can be recreated using any program you use to create the artwork but must be the current color scheme above. The design must be 300 dpi or higher. The design must be saved in .jpg , .ai or .pds format. All designs must be original and will become the property of FEFACS. Contestants will be disqualified for copyright violations.

Designs are due no later than March 5, 2024 to the FEFACS president at warnerd@pcsb.org. The submission email must include your full name, school name and FCCLA Advisors name.

Winners will be announced at FCCLA SLC in April.

(Applicants do not have to be present at FCCLA SLC to win)
